AIR FORCE SERGEANTS ASSOCIATION

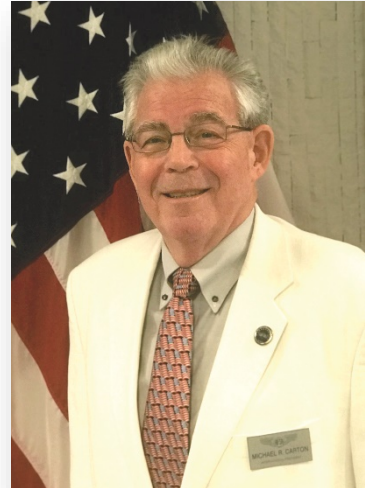

AFSA International President

Michael R. Carton

Chief Master Sergeant (Retired) Michael R. Carton currently serves as the 27th Air Force Sergeants Association's International President.

In this capacity, he is responsible for the management and oversight of seven divisions, 125 individual chapters, and over 100,000 enlisted members and their families located around the world. The membership is comprised of Active Duty, Air National Guard, Air Force Reserve, and family members. He has also served as the Association's 23rd International President, International Vice President, Division 8 President, and the President of the Bud Andrews Gateway Chapter 872 at Scott AFB. He has served on and chaired numerous International, Division, and Chapter committees throughout his AFSA career. He enlisted in the Air Force in February 1968 and retired from active duty in July 1995. His post military career included employment in the private sector and with defense contractors and finally as an Air Force Civil Servant. He retired from civil service in 2015, moving to St James North Carolina, where he serves with the town's Emergency Management Team.
